

Message: The Philippian Jailer Is Saved

Passage: Acts 16:16-40

Principle: There is a joy that comes only through knowing Christ.

Praise: When God brings salvation through the Gospel, He gives those He saves a true knowledge of Him. Because Paul and Silas knew God's sovereignty over their imprisonment, His mercy in their salvation, and His grace in allowing them to suffer for the name of Christ, they were able to rejoice in the Lord and sing songs to Him, even while in prison. When the Philippian jailer understood the Lord's forgiveness toward sinners, His compassion on the repentant, and His faithfulness to save those who believe, the jailer also rejoiced in the Lord. Whether it's the joy of a new believer, like the Philippian jailer, or the joy of mature missionaries, like Paul and Silas, believers should continue to rejoice in the Lord when they dwell on His attributes and actions in their lives.

Ask your child:

- What happened while Paul and Silas were in prison?
- How did the jailer demonstrate that he had believed?

Apply:

- By making a list of the reasons why Christians can rejoice.
- By showing a thankful heart by singing to God.
